Holy Communion: Coeliac Disease;
 If you are living with this disease, please inform the priest before Mass if you wish to receive Holy Communion in the form of bread with minimal, practically no, gluten content, or under the form of wine.

Mayo Roscommon Hospice sincerely thank Louisburgh Hospice Support group & all the volunteers who gave their time to help raise funds on National Sunflower Days for Hospice 12th & 13th June in Louisburgh. The amount raised came to €2,674.50. Grateful thanks also to all the stores for their kind co-operation in facilitating the volunteers on both days. Their support is most appreciated. All funds raised will go to supporting local hospice services in the community & in the Hospices in Castlebar

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

Many people will be aware that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick can be administered to a baptised Catholic who is in danger of death from illness or frailty and is at the end of life. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) defines the Anointing of the Sick as a sacrament instituted by Christ to strengthen those enduring serious illness or advanced age. Administered by a priest, it involves the laying on of hands and anointing the forehead and hands with blessed oil, conveying spiritual healing, peace, and courage.
 Fewer people will be aware that the sacrament of the anointing of the sick is for the "LIVING".
 The most opportune time to receive this Sacrament is at the point of a diagnosis which is of a serious nature.

An illness that afflicts us and prevents us from having a full life , for example, arthritis , cancer, severe depression, severe anxiety. This Sacrament, is the healing touch of Christ that the priest brings when we are sick and upon receiving this Sacrament the individual enables the opening of a door way to God's Grace where healing can occur on many levels.
 Physical healing if, it is in accordance with God's will. Spiritual healing and consolation by which the person is encouraged and strengthened to deal with the difficulties, anxiety , worry , fear etc., that often accompany illness or frailty of old age. As with every encounter with Christ, we need to have a living, expectant faith in the power of Jesus to heal us.
 If you don't make the decision to invite God into your life , He cannot help you because He will never override your freewill.
 St James inspired by the Holy Spirit wrote; " Are any among you discouraged? They should pray. Are any of you happy ? They should sing songs to God. If anyone is sick, let him call on the elders of the Church. They shall pray for him , anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord. This prayer said in faith will save the sick person; the Lord will raise him up and if he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven" James 5:13 -15

A Prayer for Good Weather

"Almighty and gracious God, You who hold the winds and clouds at Your command, we lift up our needs to You.

We ask that You bless us with favourable weather, clear skies, and peaceful atmospheres.
 Let the sun shine with gentle warmth, and let any rain come exactly when and where it is needed.
 Keep our communities safe from harsh storms, and grant us a productive and peaceful day.
 Amen

A prayer to transition from the classroom to a season of rest: Loving God, we thank You for the school year now ending—for lessons learned, friendships made, and Your constant presence. As we begin our holidays, grant us the rest we need. Keep our families safe, fill our days with joy, and renew our spirits for the time ahead. "May you walk with God this summer and during every holiday. May He bless Your going and Your coming, and may your time away be a beautiful reminder of His endless love. Amen."
