November - A Litany of Remembrance
Rabbi Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.
In the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter,
we remember them.
In the opening of buds and the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.
In the blueness of sky and warmth of summer,
we remember them.
In the rustling of leaves and beauty of autumn,
we remember them.
In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.
When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.
When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.
So long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.
