November - A Litany of Remembrance
Rabbi Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.
In the blowing of the wind and the chill of winter,
we remember them.
In the opening of buds and the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.
In the blueness of sky and warmth of summer,
we remember them.
In the rustling of leaves and beauty of autumn,
we remember them.
In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.
When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.
When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.
So long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Prevention of illness and infections during winter
Hand Sanitiser and face masks are available at the entrances to the churches for who may wish to wear them; many do so in crowded settings because of an underlying medical condition or because of a compromised immune system.

- Some people are very anxious about the virus transmission. Those who want to receive holy communion on the tongue, they may come to the priest.
- A nod or wave of the hand is acceptable at the sign of peace at Mass

Have Your Say on the Future of Catholic Education in your School

The current Department of Education survey on the future of patronage in the primary schools will determine what schools will divest.

It is important that those who wish for a change in patronage would have their voices heard. It is equally important that those who are already satisfied with the current patronage model and who wish for a Catholic Education for their children, including sacramental preparation within school, would have their voices heard also.

For these reasons, and to ensure that an accurate picture emerges, you are invited to participate in this survey if you are a parent, guardian or a prospective parent of a primary school student. Decisions on what schools will retain or lose their Catholic patronage will be influenced by the expressed opinions of those who participate in this survey. Therefore, your opinion and the values you hold dear are important, and your voice needs to be heard about your local school. Please take a few minutes to complete the survey.

The closing date is 16th December 2025.

*The survey may be accessed at www.gov.ie/primaryschoolssurvey
